

Huntington Partners LLP, Huizhi International Capital Announce Strategic Partnership

SINGAPORE / HONG KONG / ISTANBUL, 29 APRIL 2020, Huntington Partners LLP (“Huntington”), Asia’s leading (re) insurance focused strategic advisory firm, today announced a strategic partnership with Huizhi International Capital (“Huizhi”), an independent Hong Kong based financial services firm focused on servicing corporates in Hong Kong and Greater China.

“We are thrilled to announce this exciting partnership between Huntington and Huizhi,” said Gerard L Pennefather, Managing Partner of Huntington. “We believe in a post-Covid world our creative approach to the significant challenges and opportunities our partner companies will be facing calls for high-touch experienced advisers who understand these challenges and have the ability to move swiftly. Huizhi shares a similar philosophy to us. Huizhi’s access to HK and Greater China investors looking for acquisition opportunities in Asia, as well as across Europe, are ideal partners for our clients.”

“We believe Huntington’s deep expertise within (re)insurance and specialized FIG in both Asia and Europe will make an ideal partner for Huizhi, as our clients in Hong Kong and Greater China are looking for transactions which are both transformational as well as “bolt on’s”, which will help accelerate their global growth ambitions in both Asia and Europe. Huizhi has long prided itself in delivering client focused solutions and we are excited with the combination of skills our two companies bring,” said Dr Roger Zhu, CEO of Huizhi.

“We are very excited with the strategic alliance between Huntington and Huizhi. By leveraging our complementary coverage and expertise, we look forward to a long, productive and successful relationship,” commented Jianping Zheng, Head of Investment Banking at Huizhi.
